

Sharing your hidden talents

Thank you for taking the time to participate in this skills inventory!

Building a membership skill database will allow us to access the abundant expertise, talent and experience that exists in our membership. You are one of our most valuable resources.

The information provided in this skills set will help Al-Anon Family Groups gather volunteers for specific short term projects as they are needed. This will assist with the Board's strategic plan: Help Friends and Families of Alcoholics and supporting Al-Anon Family Groups to be a household name.

Any information you provide will not be shared with anyone, in any form, outside of the NZ Al-Anon General Service Office (NZAGSO) without your permission. As always, your anonymity in our programme will be maintained. By filling this in you are not agreeing to carry out your skills but you may be asked to help out.

Your contact information is necessary as it will be used for getting in touch should the NZAGSO wish to request your assistance on an Al-Anon Family Groups project.
