

“ No group can survive if only one member participates.
This slogan is a short way to remember Tradition One.
We must learn to lean on others, and sometimes accept others' leaning on us. We must share our experience, strength, and hope with others so that we can all grow. We can't do it alone.
No man is an island, no one is a rock. Only by truthfulness and trust can we grow in Alateen.
“Together, we can make it.” ”
